Jurisdiction	Relief Guidance
Federal	Due date extended for filing federal income tax returns to July 15, 2020. This applies to all taxpayers whose return would have been due April 15, 2020. There is no limitation on the amount of tax due for the extension to apply. The extension is automatic; Forms 4868 or 7004 do not have to be filed. The extension also applies to any payment of federal income tax, including payments of tax on self-employment income, in respect to the 2019 tax year, as well as first quarter payments of estimated tax for the 2020 tax year. The period from April 15, 2020 to July 15, 2020 will be disregarded for purposes of calculating any interest, penalty or addition to tax for the failure to file a return or pay a tax due April 15, 2020. The extension does not apply to payments or deposits of any other type of federal tax, nor does it apply to extend the due date for the filing of any federal information returns. (Notice 2020-18, March 20, 2020).
	Due date for filing federal gift tax return (Form 709) and paying federal gift or generation-skipping transfer (GST) tax is extended to July 15, 2020. The extension is automatic; Form 8892 does not have to be filed. Any interest, penalty, or addition to tax for failure to file or pay tax will not accrue until July 16, 2020, as a result of the extension; the period from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020, will be disregarded as a result of the extension (Notice 2020-20, March 29, 2020).
Alabama	Deadline for obtaining March and April 2020 motor vehicle registrations and paying property taxes on vehicles extended through May 15, 2020. Penalties will not be charged until May 18, 2020. (Order, Alabama Department of Revenue, April 1, 2020)
	Late payment penalties waived for small businesses whose monthly retail sales during the previous calendar year averaged $62,500 or less who are unable to timely pay their February, March, and April 2020 state sales tax liabilities. Late payment penalties waived for these taxpayers through June 1, 2020.
	Late payment penalties waived for businesses who are unable to timely pay their February, March, and April 2020 state sales tax liabilities and who are currently registered with the Department of Revenue as engaging in NAICS Sector 72 business activities. Late payment penalties waived through June 1, 2020. (Executive Order, Alabama Commissioner of the Department of Revenue, March 19, 2020)
	Relief extended to state lodgings tax account holders who are unable to timely pay their February, March, and April 2020 state transient occupancy tax liabilities. Late payment penalties will be waived through June 1, 2020. The return filing deadlines for state lodgings taxes has not been extended. As a result, state lodging tax filers should timely file all lodgings tax returns as normal and report any taxes due. (Executive Order, Alabama Commissioner of the Department of Revenue, March 20, 2020)
	Due date for individual income tax, corporate income tax, financial institution excise tax, and business privilege tax returns and payments due April 15, 2020 (including estimated taxes due for 2020 tax year), postponed to July 15, 2020. (Order of the Commissioner of Revenue, Alabama Department of Revenue, March 23, 2020)
	March 15, 2020 due date for filing a composite income tax return and making payments on behalf of nonresident members is postponed to July 15, 2020. (Order of the Commissioner of Revenue, Alabama Department of Revenue, March 23, 2020)

(FTB Notice 2020-02, Franchise Tax Board, March 30, 2020) The provisions of the Revenue and Taxation Code that apply to the taxes and fees administered by the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) requiring a request for an extension and the filing of a statement under penalty of perjury, may be suspended by the CDTFA for up to three months after the due date or payment for individuals or businesses filing a return for less than $1 million in tax. This is effective after the date of Gov. Newsom's Executive Order and remains effective through the reporting of taxes or fees due or the payment of taxes that are due July 31, 2020. (Executive Order N-40-20, California Gov. Gavin Newsom, March 30, 2020)

California con't	California Gov. Gavin Newsom has announced that the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) is allowing small businesses to defer payment of sales and use taxes of up to $50,000, for up to 12 months. Effective April 2, 2020, small business taxpayers, those with less than $5 million in taxable annual sales, can take advantage of a 12-month, interest-free, payment plan for up to $50,000 of sales and use tax liability. Payment plan requests can be made through the CDTFA's online services system (https://onlineservices.cdtfa.ca.gov/_/) in the coming months. (Press Release, California Gov. Gavin Newsom, April 2, 2020; COVID-19 State of Emergency, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, April 2020)
	The provisions of the Revenue and Taxation Code that apply to taxes and fees administered by the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) and specify the statute of limitations to file a claim for refund of these taxes are extended for 60 days for individuals who or businesses that are unable to file a timely claim for refund as a result of COVID-19. This is effective after the date of Gov. Newsom's Executive Order and remains in effect for all claims for refunds that must otherwise be filed by July 31, 2020. (Executive Order N-40-20, California Gov. Gavin Newsom, March 30, 2020)
	California announces that all small businesses will have an additional three months to file returns and pay taxes administered by the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA). This is in accordance with Executive Order N-40-20 issued by Governor Newsom on March 30, 2020, to expand tax relief for small business taxpayers. In addition, all businesses will have an extra 60 days to file claims for refund from CDTFA or to appeal a CDTFA decision to the Office of Tax Appeals. The CDTFA is providing a three-month extension for a tax return or tax payment to any businesses filing a return for less than $1 million in tax. According to the CDTFA, for the approximate 99.5% of business taxpayers below the $1 million threshold for their current California sales and use tax obligation, returns for the first quarter 2020 will now be due on July 31, 2020. The same provisions apply to the other tax and fee programs administered by CDTFA. Qualifying taxpayers are not required to file a request for extension or request relief from penalty or interest. This automatic extension will remain in effect through the reporting of taxes and fees due on or before July 31, 2020. (News Release NR 20-06, California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, March 31, 2020)
	The provisions of the CDTFA's rules for tax appeals that apply to the Revenue and Taxation Code to the taxes administered by the CDTFA and that provide a 30-day period to file an administrative appeal with the Office of Tax Appeals are extended for 60 days for individuals who or businesses that are unable to timely file an administrative appeal due to COVID-19. This is effective after the date of Gov. Newsom's Executive Order and remain in effect until July 31, 2020. (Executive Order N-40-20, California Gov. Gavin Newsom, March 30, 2020)
Colorado	Corporate and personal income tax payment deadline extended to July 15, 2020. Interest from the original payment due date to July 15, 2020, will be waived. All income tax returns that were required to be filed by April 15, 2020, are granted a six-month extension to October 15, 2020. Penalties for estimated income tax payments due between April 15, and June 15, are also waived until July 15, 2020. The extensions apply to all income tax payments, regardless of amount. (Press Release, Colorado Department of Revenue, March 23, 2020; Executive Order D 2020-010, Colorado Gov. Jared Polis, March 20, 2020)
	The due date for state and state administered local sales taxes due April 20, 2020, are extended to May 20, 2020, without penalty or interest. (Executive Order D 2020 023, April 5, 2020, Colorado Gov. Jared Polis; Release, Colorado Department of Revenue, April 6, 2020)

Connecticut	30 day filing extension for corporation business tax (June 15), unrelated business income tax (June 15), and pass-through entity tax (April 15) returns. June 15 deadline extension for payment of corresponding tax liability. (Press Release, Department of Revenue Services, March 16, 2020)
	The Connecticut Department of Revenue Services (DRS) is granting a two-month extension of filing and payment deadlines for certain small businesses. Taxpayers that have $150,000 or less in annual sales tax liability qualify for an automatic extension of time to file and pay. Similarly, those that have $150,000 or less in annual room occupancy tax also qualify for this relief. Entities that collect both sales tax and room occupancy tax must evaluate each tax separately to determine eligibility for relief. To determine if it is a qualified small business, entities are required to utilize a calendar year look back period of January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2019. Any taxpayer that reported $150,000 or less in tax during that period qualified for the relief. Returns covered by this extension include: (1) for monthly sales tax and room occupancy tax filers: returns and payments due March 31, 2020, and April 30, 2020, are extended to May 31, 2020; (2) for quarterly sales tax and room occupancy tax filers: returns and payments due April 30, 2020, are extended to May, 31, 2020. (Press Release, Connecticut Gov. Ned Lamont, March 30, 2020; DRS COVID-19 Response: Frequently Asked Questions FAQs, Connecticut Department of Revenue Services, March 30, 2020)

New Hampshire	New Hampshire will grant automatic relief to Business Profits Tax (BPT), Business Enterprise Tax (BET) and Interest & Dividends Tax (I&D) taxpayers in the form of payment relief and expansion of automatic filing extensions and penalty safe harbors. The relief allows most taxpayers to file and pay for tax year 2019 by June 15th without penalties or interest. Taxpayers who qualify for this specific relief are Business Tax taxpayers who owed $50,000 or less in taxes (total BPT and BET tax liability) for tax year 2018 and I&D taxpayers who owed $10,000 or less in taxes for tax year 2018. Qualifying taxpayers will have until June 15, 2020 to remit payment without typical penalties and interest. For an extension, BPT, BET and I&D taxpayers who have paid at least the amount they owed for the 2018 tax year by April 15, 2020, will not be subject to any penalties or interest, so long as they file their returns and pay tax year 2019 in full within the automatic seven-month extension, by November 15, 2020. For estimated payments, existing safe harbors will be expanded to allow for no penalties due to the underpayment of estimates if 2020 quarterly payments total 100 percent of what was owed in tax year 2018, with at least 25 percent due in each quarter. Virginia	The Department of Revenue will consider requests from sales tax dealers for an extension of the due date for filing and payment of the February 2020 sales tax return due March 20, 2020. If the request is granted, the Department will allow filing and payment of such return on April 20, 2020 with a waiver of any penalties that would have applied. However, interest will accrue even if an extension is granted. (Ruling of Commissioner, P.D. 20-49, Virginia Department of Taxation, March 19, 2020)
	For income tax payments, including estimated payments, due from April 1 to June 1, 2020, penalties waived if paid by extended due date of June 1, 2020. (Tax Bulletin 20-4, Virginia Department of Taxation, March 20, 2020)
Washington	For returns and payments of taxes administered by the department (including B&O taxes, real estate excise taxes etc), a 30 day extension for annual and quarterly filers; a 60 day extension for monthly filers.
West Virginia	July 15, 2020 income tax return filing and payment deadline for C corporations, individuals, and estate or trust fiduciaries. Extension also applies to April 15 and June 15, 2020 estimated income tax payments for corporations, nonresident S corporation shareholders, partners, or limited liability company members, individuals, and estates or trusts. Penalties and interest will apply starting July 16, 2020 if outstanding tax liability is not paid by the July 15 deadline. July 15 is the date used to calculate the interest and penalty for the underpayment of estimated tax between April 15 and July 15, 2020. (Administrative Notice 2020-16, West Virginia State Tax Department, March 26, 2020)
	Pursuant to Executive Order 13-20, second-half 2019 ad valorem property tax that would become delinquent on April 1, 2020, will now become delinquent if not paid on or before May 1, 2020. Also, county sheriffs may not declare 2019 ad valorem property taxes to be delinquent before May 2, 2020. (Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) Response, West Virginia State Tax Department, March 2020)
Wisconsin	Deadline extended to July 15, 2020, for income tax payments, estimated income tax payments, and returns due April 15, 2020. (Notice, Wisconsin Department of Revenue, March 21, 2020)
	Small businesses can immediately request an extension to file sales and use tax returns due March 31, 2020 until April 30, 2020 and due April 30, 2020 until June 1, 2020. The DOR will not assess late filing fees or penalties if sales/use tax returns are filed by April 30 or June 1; interest may accrue. (Notice, Wisconsin Department of Revenue, March 27, 2020)
